

Hello and welcome to the help

How to create an account

Push the "Create" button.

Enter Name, Password, Secret Question and Secret Question Answer then push Create button.

If the account was successfully the player will go back to the login scene.

How to login

If the user have an account he/she put in his name and password then pushes the login button.

If all is ok he will come to the select or create hero scene.

If the user dont have an account he need to create one(see "How to create an account").

How to retrieve password

Push Forgot button in login scene

Input you account name then push the first Button

Answer the question.

Push second button and get your password.

To get back to login scene click back button